

Harry Gray

Harry is the Executive Director of the Resident Doctors of BC (RDBC), where he leads a membership of 1350 Residents involved in all aspects of medical training. Harry has over 35 years of experience in the post-secondary and health industries, including a variety of executive administration roles. In his current role at RDBC, Harry works with Health employers, the University of BC and the Ministry of Health.

Harry has served on the Board of Covenant House Vancouver, where he was Vice Chair and chaired the HR & Governance committee; the PuSh International Arts Festival, where he co-chaired the hiring of a new Artistic and Executive Director; and the (Surrey) Options Community Services Society, where he sits on the Audit and Risk Management Committee. Additionally, he serves as a tribunal member on the Community Care and Assisted Living Appeal Board.

Harry holds a Master of Industrial Relations from Queen's University and a Bachelor of Commerce (Finance) from the University of British Columbia's Sauder School of Business and is a member of the Institute of Corporate Directors. Harry joined the Coast Foundation Society Board of Directors in November 2019.