

Janet Majendie

Janet is a retired Senior Investment Advisor and partner of Majendie Wealth Management, most recently at Scotia McLeod. Prior to her move to finance, Janet was a Senior Speech-Language Pathologist with Vancouver Health and, before that, an Associate Publisher with Boulevard Magazine in Victoria. Janet is a skilled fundraiser, and during her six years on the Board of York House School, she chaired the Advancement Committee. Prior to joining the Board, Janet led several fundraising campaigns for the school.

Janet co-developed and Chaired Coast Mental Health Foundation's Courage 2 Go Further, a fundraiser held over 2020, 2021 and 2022 to fill some of the gaps in fundraising when the Courage To Come Back Awards could not be held in person due to pandemic restrictions. Janet currently helps with major gift giving and serves on the Foundation's Investment Committee.
