

Laura Edwards

Laura Edwards is a professional in diverse areas, including fundraising, community building, marketing, governance, financial planning, and leadership. Laura's work has embraced creating a culture of giving for organizations, often with little or no current fundraising. She establishes meaningful relationships, locally and globally, while leading Advancement teams through successful annual and capital campaigns.

Laura has received awards for her work and commitment to the community, including the HRH Queen Elizabeth's Golden Jubilee and Diamond Jubilee Medals for volunteerism and the Association of Fundraising Professionals Outstanding Fundraiser Award.
