

Maureen Murphy

Maureen has worked as a lawyer and in the legal field for 20-plus years. Her most recent role was in-house legal counsel for the University of the Fraser Valley, and she is well-versed in governance, policy, privacy, risk management, and contracts/agreements.

Maureen has always been involved in her community while living in Ontario and British Columbia. Most recently, Maureen sat on the board of the YMCA of Greater Vancouver. Currently, Maureen is Vice-Chair of the board for the Maplewood Care Society and a board member for the Maplewood Care Foundation.

As a new member of the Coast Foundation Society, Maureen looks forward to supporting Coast Mental Health's mission and raising awareness among those living with mental illness.
