

Pamela Martin

For over 30 years as an award-winning news anchor and journalist, Pamela was a trusted voice bringing news and critical issues into the homes of millions of British Columbians. Pamela's accomplishments are too many to mention, and notably, she has been an agent of change in the province, engaging with various stakeholders and helping advance the issues affecting the BC economy for families.

In addition to her new role with the Coast Mental Health Foundation Board, Pamela is also on the boards of the Women's Leadership Circle Advisory Council of the Greater Vancouver Board of Trade, Pacific Autism Family Centre Foundation, and Face the World Foundation.
