

Richard Beed

Richard brings more than 33 years of senior HR experience with major organizations, including Fujitsu, Nortel Networks, TELUS, Central 1 and is currently the Vice President, People and Culture at the Vancouver Airport Authority. In Richard's current role, he is focused on driving cultural and business transformation for all of the people-focused areas of business including HR, learning & development, health & safety, and multiple lines of business.

Since joining YVR in 2020, Richard has championed a talent-first strategy to reshape the airport's approach in a variety of areas, including leadership development, digital transformation, and diversity and inclusion.

As Board Chair of Marineview Housing Society, Richard is leading their amalgamation efforts to join with Coast Mental Health and will be on the board of the newly amalgamated Society.