

Susan Mueller

As a Chartered Professional Accountant with a background in nonprofit administration, Susan is well-versed in finance, governance, compliance reporting, and capital project management.

Her involvement with Coast Mental Health Foundation comes from wanting to make a difference to people who are struggling with mental illness.